CLASSICAL GUITAR MASTER STANLEY ALEXANDROWICZ AT TRINITY

8 p.m. March 13 (Friday)

Trinity Church, 503 Asbury Avenue, Asbury Park

A graduate of Manhattan School of Music's doctoral program and a former student of Manuel Barrueco, classical guitarist Stanley Alexandrowicz is internationally renowned for his virtuosic musicality, insightful interpretations, and refined guitarism. Many composers have written works specifically for Dr. Alexandrowicz and his interpretations of both premieres and traditional guitar repertoire are highly regarded by critics. Dr. Alexandrowicz is a recording artist with a CD on Albany Records to be released this year.

The concert will be 8 p.m. Friday, March 13, at Trinity Church, 503 Asbury Ave., Asbury Park. Music of Invention is now in its fifth season of adventurous listening events. Admission to all events is $12 reserved in advance, $15 without a reservation at the door. Seniors (over 65) and students with an ID may purchase tickets for $5. Call 732-757-7258 or click "Tickets" at www.musicofinvention.com to reserve seats. For more information visit www.musicofinvention.com or call 732-757-7258.

MUSIC OF INVENTION & THE BLACK BOX OF ASBURY PARK

Founded and directed by Asbury Park composer Carlton Wilkinson, The Black Box of Asbury Park's Music of Invention series highlights artists in performances of experimental music during the regular concert season, October through June. The series specializes in performers and composers who deliberately cross stylistic boundaries, creating music that is unclassifiable. The contact for questions, photographs and press releases is Carlton Wilkinson, at 732-757-7258. Black Box of Asbury Park is a federally recognized nonprofit with 501(c)(3) status. More information can be found at www.blackboxap.org.
